

Stocksbridge Junior School

Issue No. 594

07/06/2024

As the focus has turned to France this week, here at SJS we have also been commemorating the 80th Anniversary of the D Day landings in Normandy. Although geographically, the North-West coast of France may be nearly 500 miles from Stocksbridge, it has felt much closer this week as we have learnt about the experiences of the veterans on the 6th June, eighty years ago. Listening in assembly to the poignant singing of Vera Lynn, we thought about the families who didn't 'meet again'. The two World Wars are traditionally Year 6 topics but it is so important that through our curriculum and assemblies, children are aware of the impact these moments in world history still have on our lives today.

OUR NEW WEBSITE IS LIVE

During the half term break, we launched the brand new Stocksbridge Junior School website. The new site features all the information you have been used to finding in an easy to find structure, and with the addition of up-to-date images of our wonderful children that show the fun and learning that happen here every day. On the home page, you'll find at-a-glance information: the next few dates on our calendar, quick links to key pieces of information and the latest news from SJS (which is where you can find the latest newsletter).

We'll be adding more newsletters, information and images so do keep visiting the site.
