

Stocksbridge Junior School

Issue No. 664

27/03/2026

It's hard to believe we have reached the end of another busy half term! The past five weeks since our last holiday have been packed with learning, progress and fun across the school, and while the children have shown fantastic enthusiasm and resilience, they are certainly ready for a well-earned rest. Alongside their classroom efforts, we have enjoyed a wide range of memorable experiences, including cinema and concert trips, residential visits, parent sessions, sports competitions and lots, lots more. We have rounded off the term in true SJS style with some egg-citing Easter events, from our Easter disco to our ever-popular Easter Egg competition. As a forward-facing school, we are always looking ahead to modern ideas in education; however, this much-loved seasonal competition, which has been running for decades, remains a special tradition enjoyed by generations of children. We would like to wish all our SJS families a happy and restful break, hopefully with more seasonal weather than this week's frost and snow! We look forward to welcoming the children back for the start of our summer term on Monday 13th April.

BOOK OF THE WEEK

Mrs Gaymond has chosen this week's book of the week - a truly delightful picture book, in charming, retro black-and-yellow drawings, about a little boy who was afraid of the dark. There's nothing unusual about that. Most children are afraid of the dark at one time or another. But this little boy was a Prince, and he decided that when he became King, he would do something about the dark. He would ban it. When a King bans the dark completely, installing an artificial sun, and enforcing "anti-dark" laws, it seems like a good idea. The citizens don't need to worry about monsters, crime, or any of the other scary things that might live in the dark. But what happens when nobody can sleep, and the citizens revolt? Will the King face his fears and turn the lights off? The King Who Banned the Dark is a beautiful story about how we need the dark in order to enjoy the light.

EASTER EGG COMPETITION

This year's Easter competition has truly exceeded our egg-spectations, with an impressive array of egg-themed entries. We were fortunate to have Jo and Lucy from Enzygo join us as independent judges - we are grateful for their time and effort. Judging the entries was no easy task, egg-specially given the egg-ceptionally high standard of this year's egg-tries!

We would like to thank Enzygo, Live & Learn, Martyn Kemp Opticians and GW Finance for supporting our Easter Competition this year! Their generosity helps us bring fun, creativity, and community spirit to our events, and we are incredibly grateful for their involvement. Thanks to their support, every child who participated in the competition received a Cadbury's Creme Egg and larger Easter eggs were awarded to the winners in each year group.

RED NOSE DAY

Thank you to everyone who came to school wearing red last week in support of Red Nose Day.
We raised £108.90!

SITE SAFETY POSTER COMPETITION

You may remember back in November that the construction company, David Wilson Homes invited SJS children to enter a poster competition. Children were asked to design a site safety poster that highlights the danger of building sites and how to stay safe around them. We are proud to share that one of our wonderful Y6 pupils has won the competition and has her design proudly displayed around Hollins Park View!

MENINGOCOCCAL DISEASE

In light of the recent cases of invasive meningococcal disease reported in Kent, Sheffield public health services are reminding parents and carers about the importance of ensuring children and young people are up to date with routine vaccinations.

In particular, we would like to highlight the importance of the 6-in-1 (DTaP/IPV/Hib/HepB) vaccine and the MenB (meningococcal B) vaccine, which are offered across several doses in the first 18 months of life. These vaccines provide vital protection against serious illnesses, including meningitis and sepsis. While these are usually given in infancy, children who have missed one or more doses can still catch up.

It also crucial to ensure children are fully vaccinated against measles, as we know the disease continues to circulate in Yorkshire.

If any doses have been missed, they can be caught up by contacting your child's GP practice or by attending a local School Age Immunisation Service (SAIS) drop-in clinic.

Further information on clinic locations and times is available here:

OUT-OF-SCHOOL ACHIEVEMENTS

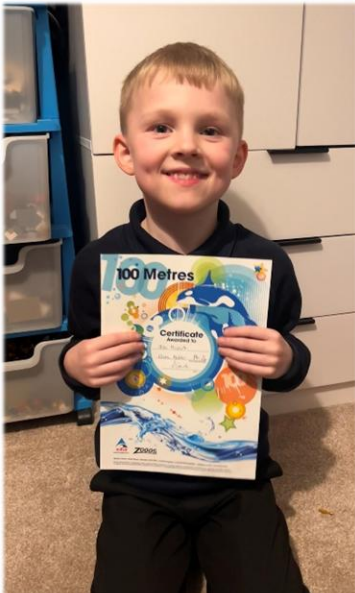

A heartfelt thank you to parents for sharing their child's out-of-school achievements. It is inspiring to see so many SJS children enjoying themselves in such a variety of activities including a new-found love of running, improving our community with much-needed litter picking, collecting Blue Peter badges, plus drama, swimming, ice-skating, musical and football achievements. Well done to all the children included in today's celebration.
